June 9, 2017

Archive footage from the last eruption of Mount Lassen in May, 1915 reminds that earthquakes are not the only geological activity in California. The Cal OES Earthquake, Tsunami, and Volcano program works closely with the scientific community to monitor and track volcanic activity throughout the state

Cal OES Coastal Region

Paul's Slide, State Route 1, Monterey County

Per Cal OES Coastal Duty Officer (CDO), as of 1300 hours on 05/25/17, Paul's Slide on State Route 1 has been closed to all traffic.

- Caltrans engineers report slide activity and the area has been closed in the interest of public safety.
- Assessment will commence and further details will be provided once released.
- State Route 1 opened briefly on 06/02/17 for locals and delivery access. Full closure resumed the evening of 06/02/17 through Tuesday 06/06/17 in the evening.

Mud Creek Slide, State Route 1, Monterey County

The Mud Creek area on State Route 1 sustained a major slide on the evening of 05/20/17, when over a million tons of rock and dirt fell down the slope continuing down to the ocean floor 250 feet off the shoreline.

- The Mud Creek area is ¼ mile in length, made up of five slides, four of which fell during this single incident and consolidated into one slide. The remaining slide now extends 1,500 feet in length over State Route 1 and is about 35 to 40 feet deep.
- Roadwork at Mud Creek was suspended and heavy equipment removed last week due to the threat of new slides and for safety of highway workers. Caltrans geologists and engineers plan to assess it further when this area stabilizes.
- There is no estimate when this section of State Route 1, approximately nine miles north of the San Luis Obispo/Monterey County line will re-open.

Pfeiffer Bridge Incident, Monterey County

California Highway Patrol (CHP) and Caltrans had a hard closure on the Pfeiffer Bridge on HWY 1 at mile marker 45.52 (SB Sycamore Canyon and the Bridge) due to a crack in the bridge. The bridge has been demolished so the road is closed and estimates for some access from the north is late September 2017.

- Backup air medical transport plans have been developed for medical emergencies through Cal OES Law Enforcement Branch.
- All businesses north of the Pfeiffer Canyon Bridge closure are open to the public.

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

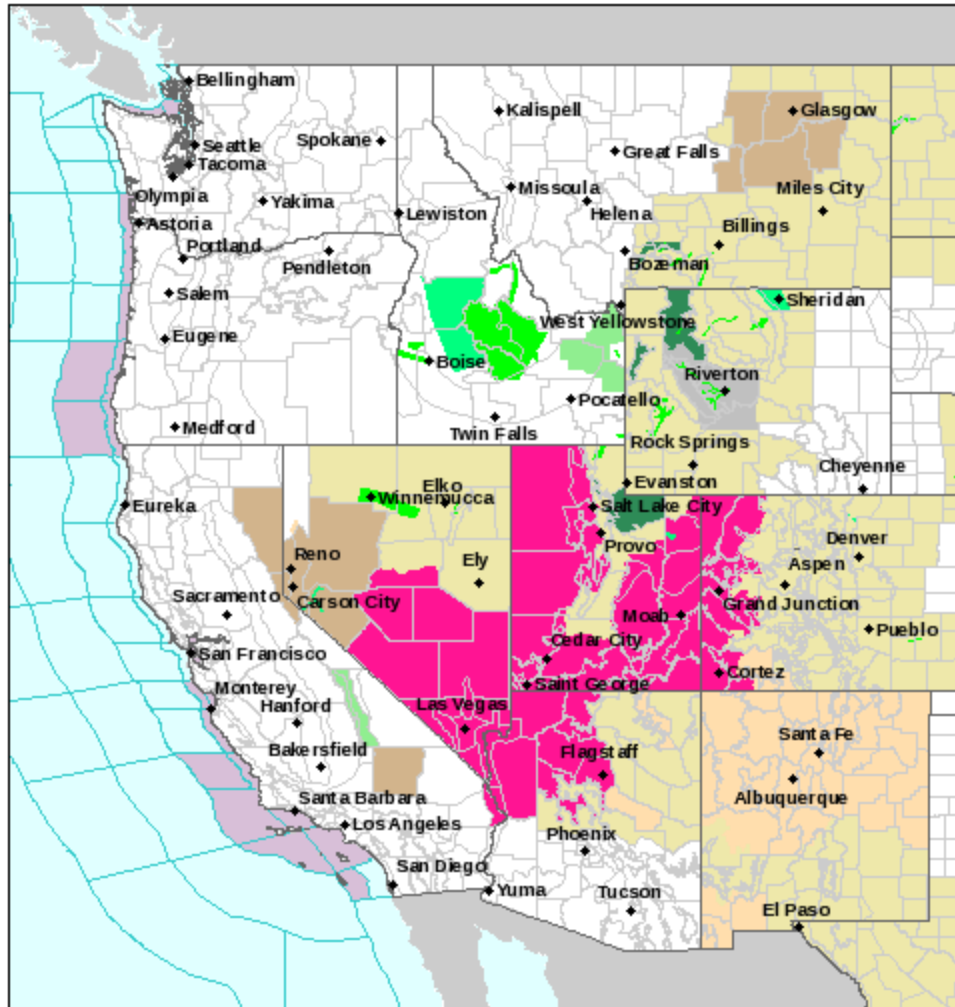

A cool, moist low pressure trough and its associated front/precipitation are moving through Northern California this weekend. There will be several more days of showers as the trough lingers through the weekend with most of the showers expected to occur over the northern and eastern areas. Gusty afternoon S to W winds are expected Friday and Saturday, and possibly again Sunday. While thunderstorms do not seem very likely this weekend, Sunday will be the day that will produce them. Any that may occur will be wet and isolated. The trough will finally move east Monday and dry, warmer weather will move into the region Tuesday through next Thursday. Temperatures will be well below normal for a few days before climbing back to seasonal normals Monday.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

A Pacific trough dropping down the West Coast will bring strong westerly winds to the mountains and deserts through this weekend. Winds will be 20 to 30 mph with gusts to 50 mph across the wind prone areas through Saturday morning and then the winds will increase to 25 mph to 40 mph with gusts to 60 mph Saturday afternoon through Sunday night. Isolated showers will occur from a Monterey/Fresno County line northward this morning and again on Sunday. The marine layer will be deep through this weekend, with morning low clouds and fog making it over the lower coastal mountain slopes. Temperatures will cool through the weekend and be 10 to 15 degrees below normal by Sunday. Maximum temperatures will be around 5 degrees below normal today, with 60s to low 70s across the mountains and mid 70s to mid 80s in the valleys. Minimum humidity will be mainly above 30% away from the deserts through this weekend. A ridge of high pressure will build northward from Mexico bringing a warming and drying trend next week. Temperatures will be 10 to 15 degrees above normal by the end of next week.
